ORDER

Using mobile phone while driving a motor vehicle constitutes nuisance or danger to the public under Rule 21 of the Central Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989, and the provisions of clause (f) of Sub-section (1) of section 19 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 empower a licensing authority to disqualify such offender from holding a driving licence or revoke such licence.

It is found that such act of distracted driving is often reported as one of the causes of road accidents, even while such matters often and skip the notice of enforcement authorities as well the coverage of CCTV installed at major junctions. It is felt important to book those offenders with evidence of violation of law in order to take actions with a view to minimize accidents.

The matter has been considered carefully in view of the steps required for road- safety and it has been decided by the Government of West Bengal to adopt following measures in the respect.

- (i) In General considering the safety of passengers and other road users, the offence of using mobile phone while driving a vehicle, may also attract the penal provisions under section 184 (driving dangerously) of Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 and may be compounded under section 200 of the Act in terms of Notification No. 3205-WT/3M-15/2007 dated 30/06/2017.
- (ii) Further considering the potential danger to public and resultant fatality arising particularly out of accidents of heavy motor vehicle, both passenger and goods [i.e. buses and trucks], the offence of using mobile phone while driving may be punished with disqualification of the driver from holding driving licence and/or revocation of his driving licence in terms of Section 19 of Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 read with rule 21 (25) of Central Motor Vehicle Rules 1989 by the appropriate authority, if deemed fit.
- (iii) Similar actions/punishment, as noted under para (ii) above may also be taken in case of the drivers of categories of vehicles, other than mentioned above, for any second or subsequent similar offence, if the appropriate authority deems fit.
- (iv) Any photographic and/or electronic evidence, as is admissible in the Indian Evidence Act. depicting a clear Picture of the driver using mobile phone while driving will be taken as a sufficient proof of the offence.
- (v) Submission of such photograph and/or electronic evidence with details of place of occurrence by any authority or citizen may be accepted by Licensing Authority or Police Authority for taking action against the accused driver as per law. Information on details of the driver which is required to be provided by the owner in terms of Section 133 of Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 may be used to identify the driver and taking action against him.

All concerned authorities are directed to take necessary action in this regard.
